

Commander (select) Barbara D. Tucker

Supply Corps, United States Navy
Naval Supply Systems Command
Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania

Commander (select) Tucker received her commission from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1989. She holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Oceanography from the U.S. Naval Academy and a Master of Science Degree in Management (emphasis in Acquisition and Contract Management) from the Naval Postgraduate School. She is a member of the Navy Acquisition Professional Community certified at Level III in contracting and Level II in acquisition logistics.

Commander (select) Tucker began her Navy career in 1989 by serving as Assistant to the Director, Detail Division, Supply Corps Personnel, in Washington DC. She then went to the Navy Supply Corps School in Athens, Georgia, whereupon completion she went to her first supply assignment afloat as the Sales, Disbursing and Assistant Stock Control Officer on board USS CONCORD (AFS-5), making two Mediterranean deployments. Her second afloat assignment was as Supply Officer on board USS COMSTOCK (LSD-45), where she completed two Western Pacific deployments.

Commander (select) Tucker's shore assignments have included Contracting and Control Division Officer, U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland; Deployment Logistics Officer, Commander U.S. Naval Forces Korea, Seoul, Korea; H-46 Weapons Manager, Naval Inventory Control Point, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Student, Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California.

She is qualified as a Surface Warfare Supply Corps Officer. Her personal awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (four awards) and the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (one award).

Commander (select) Tucker has been assigned to the Naval Supply Systems Command since January 2003. She serves as a Team Leader in the Field Operations Division of the Contracting Management Directorate.